Work Safe Policy

McNealy Brown Limited operates a Work Safe Policy (or Refusal to Work Policy) all staff and sub-contracted labour working under our supervision.

Every individual working on behalf of McNealy Brown Limited has the absolute right to decline to carry out work if they feel it is not safe to do so.

Any situation arising which leads to an individual refusing to work for reasons of Health and Safety must be reported to Management as soon as possible. Work shall not recommence until the issue(s) causing concern have been addressed.

McNealy Brown Ltd is also a member of CIRAS and actively promotes understanding of confidentiality reporting where necessary. This is briefed as part of our induction process.

All staffs are encouraged to report unsafe acts or conditions that have been witnessed.
